ABOUT OUR JUDGE

I was five years old when my father presented me with my own puppy, a brindle Staffordshire Bull Terrier who was my constant companion and he taught me a lot about dog behaviour, fantastic with humans of all sizes but not so polite with other dogs!

At secondary school my best friend's parents showed Standard Smooth Dachshunds and took me to a local show - I never looked back! I went to Crufts in 1969 and watched Best in Show from the balcony of Earls Court, I was hooked! I learnt about dog shows from the bottom up, ages 14 in the kitchen making tea for the local canine society committee and learnt a whole new language of CC's, Studbook numbers and so much more, travelling up and down the length of the UK attending and showing dogs.

My first bitch arrived in 1985 followed by her niece in 1990. My teaching career progressed which often made attending shows difficult and on one occasion attended the East of England Agricultural Show having organised a school trip for students coincided with Hound day, Ridgebacks often went on school activities after that.

In total I have bred seven litters to date and have always bred to keep another companion first, show dog a bonus. All my dogs have gained Stud book numbers, one male had two CC's but had to retire for health reasons, others have gained Reserve CC's but never the elusive Champion.

Recently I have taken responsibility for Judges Education as the Breed Education Co-ordinator, I am Chair of the Breed Council, and this year returned to the RRCGB committee as the Secretary. I have also been passed to award CC's in Bassett Fauve De Bretagne in 2022. I have also been fortunate enough to judge a club show in Ireland, Sweden and at an all breeds show in Goes, Holland.

I am honoured to have been asked to judge the Southern Rhodesian Ridgeback Association Championship Show, I can't wait to see some fabulous hounds, a fit active dog is a pleasure to see and I am truly looking forward to this appointment.

Cath Davis
